

Nominate deserving candidates for Whitley County High School Athletic Hall of Fame

Do you know an alumnus or alumna who has produced significant athletic achievements while attending Whitley County High School? What about a person that has made significant contributions to the success of athletics at Whitley County High School? Do you know of a former Colonel team that meets the criteria for induction into the Hall of Fame?

If you answered yes to any of the above, take a moment to nominate candidates that meet the criteria for Whitley County Athletic Hall of Fame. Such individuals or teams should be recognized by the Whitley County High School each year and your nomination(s) with any accompanying documentation helps the Athletic Hall of Fame Committee make annual selections.

The Whitley County Athletic Hall of Fame Committee is accepting nominations for Athletic Hall of Fame inductions. Awards are presented annually during the Athletic Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony held during the Alumni Bowl game at Colonel Stadium. Nominations must be received by the Hall of Fame Committee no later than June 1, 2017 for consideration by the Athletic Hall of Fame Committee. All nominations will be considered active for a three (3) year period. The committee may request follow-up information for any nomination.
